1.- Identification of Programme

Name of programme
El programa mas importante

Main categories/themes of the Programme:
Select more if applicable:

Region:
Country: Afghanistan
City/Estate   Coliam

Number of young employees in the implementing institution : 1
Number of young employees in the implementing institution enrolled in Social Security : 2
Number of young employees hired by the implementing institution on a long term basis (length of contract at least 1 year) : 3
Number of young volunteers (without a contract) involved with the implementing institution : 4

KEY DATES OF PROGRAMME

Status of the programme

Start date of the programme	12/12/2001	End date of the Programme	12/12/2012

2 Labour Market Barriers/Failures Addressed by the Programme

Select more if applicable

Other

3 Description of the Programme

Overall and specific objectives
* Overall and specific objectives

Beneficiaries

Total number of beneficiaries of the Programme (if known):

    1

    2 Female

    3 Male

Age group targeted by the Programme

Age bracket of beneficiaries (if known)

From 6 years of age -

7 years of age

Occupational considerations

Otro

Primary geographic target of the Programme

Gender considerations

Disability considerations

Ethnic considerations

Targeting of the Programme towards low income individuals

Targeting of the Programme towards individuals with low education or out of school

Targeting of the Programme towards individuals at risk

Does the Programme integrate a gender perspective in its interventions/services for young people?

    --

How does it integrate this perspective into its methodologies relating to services for young people?

Does it have a human rights' perspective?

    --

Describe

Identification of problems

Was the Programme designed in response to the findings of a prior youth employment situation analysis?

.   No

Describe

Please describe the youth employment environment prior to programme implementation. Be sure to include a brief analysis of the social context.

* Please describe the youth employment environment prior to programme implementation. Be sure to include a brief analysis of the social context.

Implementation

	Female
Number of people who staffed for Programme activities:	Male
	Total

Out of the total, how many young people took part in the implementation of the Programme (hired or volunteering)?

Description of the process, activities, strategies and/or methodologies used
* Description of the process, activities, strategies and/or methodologies used

---

4 Results and Impact of the Programme

Please describe the youth employment situation after the implementation of the Programme:
 * Please describe the youth employment situation after the implementation of the Programme:

Please list the stated objectives of the programme and assess in detail whether or not it has been achieved
Explain
  * Please list the stated objectives of the programme and assess in detail whether or not it has been achieved
Were the resources adequately planned to achieve the objectives of the Programme?
      --
Explain

Have the process and/or results been evaluated?
      Yes
If yes, how? If no, why?
  If yes, how? If no, why?

Have the results and lessons learned been systematized or documented?
      No
If yes, how? If no, why?
   * Have the results and lessons learned been systematized or documented?

Specific Results

a) Does the Programme improve linkages, coordination and integration among different social and/or government actors, organizations and institutions?
      No
How?
Impact

Has the Programme contributed to improving the quality of work for its beneficiaries?

     Yes

How?

Did the Programme had any other impact, and if so which one(s)?

Did the Programme had any other impact, and if so which one(s)?

Follow-Up

Is there a follow-up strategy?

     Yes

Describe

Is there a follow-up strategy?

5 Costs and Financing of the Programme

Note: All amounts must be stated in U.S. dollars.

Total cost of the Programme (please specify if there were extra-budgetarian costs): 12

Unit/per capita cost :

Main source(s) of funding (check all that apply):

Name(s) of sources of funding:

Name(s) of sources of funding:

6 Sustainability and Other Criteria

Does the Programme have non-sponsoring partners

     Yes

Name	Description of participation
sdafasdf	sdfsdaf

Is the Programme part of a national or local policy?

No

Has the Programme been officialised by government into a legal instrument or is there any long term agreement in terms of its maintenance?

     Yes

How?

* Has the Programme been officialised by government into a legal instrument or is there any long term agreement in terms of its maintenance?

Did the Programme include youth/the target population in the design, implementation and/or monitoring and evaluation of the programme?

   No

How?

Describe how the Programme is different or innovative compared to similar initiatives with regard to methodology, models, strategies, resources, etc.:

   * Describe how the Programme is different or innovative compared to similar initiatives with regard to methodology, models, strategies, resources, etc.:

Briefly explain why you think the Programme should be selected as a "good practice"?

   * Briefly explain why you think the Programme should be selected as a "good practice"?

7. Replication

Is the Programme or model of your methodology replicable?

   Yes

What are the necessary conditions and fundamental characteristics to replicate it?
 What are the necessary conditions and fundamental characteristics to replicate it?

Has your Programme been replicated by other entities/bodies?

   Yes

How and by whom?
 How and by whom?

8. General Assessment and Lessons Learned

What are the principal strengths of the Programme?
 * What are the principal strengths of the Programme?

What are the key criteria or conditions for the Programme to be successful?
 What are the key criteria or conditions for the Programme to be successful?

What are the weaknesses of the Programme?
 * What are the weaknesses of the Programme?

General Assessment
 General Assessment

References

(Optional) Please identify (link) or attach copies of articles on the Programme which have been published or which have appeared in other media

Link	Title

File	Title

Other

If you would like to add any information that you consider important and that would enrich the quality of the Programme presentation (and which has not been considered in this platform), please do so here:

 If you would like to add any information that you consider important and that would enrich the quality of the Programme presentation (and which has not been considered in this platform), please do so here: